Testimonial

A testimonial honoring the collaboration between Salttech BV (www.salttech.com)
and
Dr. Andreas Weideneder, MD of Brau Consult BCW GmbH (www.brauconsult.de).

It is with great respect and admiration that we reflect on the invaluable contributions of Dr. Weideneder to Salttech's journey in the DACH region.

Since 2018, Dr. Weideneder has served as a cornerstone of our market introduction in this critical area, exemplifying remarkable dedication and expertise in his role as Business Development Manager.

Through his tireless efforts, Dr. Weideneder has elevated Salttech's brand recognition and orchestrated the successful introduction of our groundbreaking Dyvar[®] technology within the several industries. His participation in prestigious events, such as ACHEMA, DECHEMA and VDI seminars, has been instrumental in communicating the unique benefits of our technology.

In doing so, Dr. Weideneder has not only attracted prominent clients but has also established Salttech as a trusted innovator in the sector. Beyond his professional achievements, Dr. Weideneder extensive network within the industry has been an invaluable asset, fostering essential connections and partnerships.

On a personal note, Dr. Weideneder has been an exemplary colleague, embodying professionalism, integrity, and an unwavering commitment to excellence.

His collegial spirit and collaborative approach have made working alongside him an absolute pleasure. As we honor Dr. Weideneder significant contributions, we also express our deep gratitude for his pivotal role in Salttech's success.

It has been a privilege to work with someone of his caliber, whose vision and dedication have left an indelible mark on our journey.

Respectfully,

Reimond Olthof, CEO/ Co-founder
